Join the community leading nature conservation in Victoria

For over 70 years, Victorian National Parks Association members have been instrumental to our success. Our members have contributed their passion, time and resources to the incredible gains we've achieved.

But we've still got so much to do! More than ever, we need committed nature-lovers to help bring our ambitious vision to life: a diverse and healthy natural environment protected, respected and enjoyed by all.

By putting your values into action, you're strengthening our efforts to:

- Increase and defend protected areas like national parks and reserves.
- Stop the destruction of native wildlife and habitats.
- Advocate for stronger nature laws.
- Hold our elected representatives to account.
- Inspire and educate the community about Victoria's special places.
